Invite Local Media into the Show Ring

Morton, IL - From across the nation, American Shetland Pony Club (ASPC), American Miniature Horse Registry (AMHR) and American Show Pony Registry (ASPR) owners are preparing for the show ring. Handlers will show off the exquisite lines and grace of these small equine in harness classes while a variety of action-packed classes will delight horse enthusiasts of all ages - fast-paced roadster, historic pleasure driving, timed jumper and obstacle classes are just a few of the more than 300 classes offered at a ASPC/AMHR/ASPR sanctioned event. Shows are FREE and open to the public – with opportunities for current members of American Shetland Pony Club, Inc., participating for ribbons, awards and qualification for the annual National Shows.

These National Area shows are providing the opportunity for local Media to enter the show ring with these versatile ponies and small horses. Experience what an exhibitor goes through - with the guidance of an experienced ASPC/AMHR/ASPR trainer. You'll be amazed at the intelligence, personality and versatility of these wonderful animals. Contact the representative for the Area Show nearest you to set up a time to broadcast live during your morning show or newscast, we'd be happy to accommodate your schedule in order to share our enthusiasm and knowledge of these small equine with the public.
